Until a pint-sized graffiti artist leads him to the woman he's been dreaming of and the family he's always wanted. Except busting Erica Braxton's son for vandalism isn't a great start.

After her husband died in Afghanistan, widowing her and leaving her young son without a father, Erica had to figure out how to pick up the pieces and rebuild her shattered life. She's finding a path through her grief, but her son gets angrier and more self-destructive every day. The one ray of hope is the sexy detective who's so good for her boy and so dangerous to her heart.

Erica and her son need a man in their lives and Adam wants the job. But she's not falling for a guy who carries a gun. If she gives her heart away, it will be to a nice safe accountant or insurance salesman. With crime in the normally quiet town heating up and Erica walling her already wounded heart away, can Adam convince her to take a chance on them? Or will he be left alone again without someone to love?

From USA Today and New York Times bestselling author Evelyn Adams, Someone to Love is the anticipated conclusion to the much loved Southerland series.
